

Cirque Eloize Brings Song, Dance, Acrobatics, and Fun to the Lancaster Performing Arts Center

Lancaster, CA. February 8, 2018 – Cirque Eloize unveils its newest creation, Saloon, at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center on Saturday, February 17. The Wild West comes to life in a fearless and innovative show that flawlessly combines agility, strength, choreography, theatre, music, and acrobatic ingenuity.

In a completely new kind of old West get-together, the audience follows a piano tuner's adventure in a bar full of gold miners, rail workers, chorus girls, and cowboys. Under the spell of Saloon's beautiful Belle, he sets off on an action-packed chase reminiscent of the golden era of westerns – taking the audience on a theatrical thrill ride. This spectacular features eleven world-class acrobats, as well as an on-stage live band which performs country, folk, and Americana tunes, including hits by Patsy Cline and Johnny Cash.

Lasso up an evening of fun for the entire family with Cirque Eloize's Saloon, at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center Saturday, February 17 at 8 p.m. Seats are available at $42, $37, and Youth $15. Tickets may be purchased online at www.LPAC.org, by phone at (661) 723-5950, or in person at the LPAC Box Office, 750 W. Lancaster BLVD. Box Office hours are Noon to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and Noon to 4 p.m. Saturday.
