

GENTRI: The Gentlemen Trio to Bring Signature Sound to the Lancaster Performing Arts Center

Lancaster, CA. February 22, 2018 – Comprised of three classically trained tenors, GENTRI: The Gentlemen Trio will perform for one night only at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center (LPAC) on Friday, March 2. The trio will be accompanied by a string quintet featuring local Antelope Valley musicians Amelia Fischer, Benton Preciado, John David Hester, Roberto Palencia, and Rosalind Darbeau.

GENTRI: The Gentlemen Trio has taken the music industry by storm since the gents joined forces in 2014. These highly trained tenors -- all leads in Broadway productions of The Phantom of the Opera, A Tale of Two Cities, Beauty and the Beast, and The Scarlet Pimpernel -- became friends while starring in a touring run of Les Miserables. GENTRI's gents, Brad Robins, Casey Elliot, and Bradley Quinn Lever, have developed a superb blending of their tenor vocals into a signature sound described as "Cinematic Pop" with epic orchestrations and rich, dynamic three-part harmonies.

Spend an evening with GENTRI: The Gentlemen Trio at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center on Friday, March 2 at 8 p.m. Seats are available at $30, $25, and $10 for Youth. Tickets may be purchased online at www.LPAC.org, by phone at (661) 723-5950, and in person at the LPAC Box Office, 750 W. Lancaster BLVD. Box Office hours are Noon to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and Noon to 4 p.m. Saturday. This show is sponsored by the Antelope Valley Press.
