Lancaster, CA. March 22, 2018 – Nine-time winner of the Las Vegas Comedian of the Year, Rita Rudner, brings her sublime and supremely hilarious comedy to the Lancaster Performing Arts Center on Saturday, April 7.

Rudner has been entertaining audiences for nearly three decades, with her trademark brand of neurotic comedy filled with clever one-liners. With a 14-year run in Las Vegas and more than 2,000 performances under her belt, Rudner has established the record for the longest-running solo comedy show in the city's history. Her career took off in 1988, when she became a regular on The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson. Rudner's HBO specials, including Born to Be Mild and Married Without Children, helped establish her as one of the premiere female comics to emerge from the comedy boom of the 1980s.
