

Relive the Golden Era of Rock with Firefall at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center

Lancaster, CA. February 14, 2018 – In a time when new bands come and go the music of Firefall has endured, with a career that spans more than four decades and is still going strong. Firefall will bring their classic rock hits to the Lancaster Performing Arts Center (LPAC) on Friday, February 23.

One of the most successful bands of the 1970s and 80s, Firefall returns with original members Jock Bartley, David Muse, and Mark Andes – as well as a repertoire of hit songs that few bands can match. The group's classics include "You Are the Woman," "Just Remember I Love You," "Strange Way," "Cinderella," and "Headed for a Fall." Firefall's commercial success includes three Gold albums and two Platinum albums, along with 11 chart-topping singles. The band's tight harmonies and intricate vocal arrangements are sure to cast a feeling of nostalgia over all those in attendance.

Join the members of Firefall and relive the golden era of rock at the Lancaster Performing Arts Center on Friday, February 23 at 8 p.m. Seats are available at $29, $24, and Youth $10. Tickets may be purchased online at www.LPAC.org, by phone at (661) 723-5950, and in person at the LPAC Box Office, 750 W. Lancaster BLVD. Box Office hours are Noon to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and Noon to 4 p.m. Saturday.
